

Current Job Openings

(Last Updated 7/9/2009)

Inside Sales Customer Service Representative:

One position open: Honolulu, HI

Inside Sales Customer Service position open for wholesale residential plumbing. Knowledge of commercial wholesale plumbing with project coordination of products is a plus. Knowledge of plumbing and customer service skills are a must. Please follow the application process below which will include reference checks and a pre-employment drug test.

Various Positions:

No current positions open in Washington:

We are currently advertising and accepting applications for Inside Counter Sales, Delivery Drivers and Warehouse candidates for future positions that may soon be available. All warehouse employees must be able to serve as a back up delivery driver. Therefore, applicants must have an insurable driving record and must be at least 21 years of age. No CDL is required. Warehouse knowledge of plumbing supplies is helpful, but not required. Warehouse duties include pulling customer will call orders, putting stock away, sweeping and maintaining the warehouse, shipping and receiving, etc. Inside sales positions require knowledge of wholesale residential plumbing and customer service skills are a must. Please follow the application process below which will include reference checks and a pre-employment drug test.

Application Process

The application is located on our web page. Click 'Contact Us' to see the link for our application. Everyone is welcome to make an application for employment.

Applications are reviewed, and qualified applicants are invited into the interview process.

Interviewing is a five step process including reviewing the application. The first step is a review of the application. If we are interested, we will schedule an interview with Human Resources. If approved to continue in the application process, references will be checked. If references are acceptable, your resume/application will be forwarded by HR to managers with open positions as they become available. If a manager is interested in hiring you for the position, a pre-employment drug screen is required before a position can be offered.

Please feel free to apply. Applications are kept on file for approximately one year.